

Pirates

Key people

Captain Cook 1728-1779

He was born in Marton and was a famous explorer, navigator and Captain, He was the first person from Europe to discover Australia and the first person to sail all the way around New Zealand.

Black Beard 1680-1718

His real name was Edward Teach and he was married 14 times! His favourite drink was rum mixed with gun powder. He was only a pirate for 2 years before he was caught and has his head chopped off.

William Kidd 1645-1701

He started off as a well-respected sailor but was forced to be a pirate by his crew. He is the only pirate known to bury his treasure. He was hanged for being a pirate.

Anne Bonney 1698-1782

As women weren't usually allowed on ships she dressed up as a man and was an excellent fighter. She has friends with another female pirate called Mary read and married to a pirate called Calico Jack.

Black Bart 1682-1722

His real name was John Roberts but he changed it to Black Bart when he became a pirate. He loved to wear expensive clothes and jewellery even when he went into battle.

Physical features

Beach
Cliff
Coast
Forest
Hill
Mountain
Sea
Ocean
River
Cave
Valley

Human features

City
Town
Village
Factory
Farm
House
Castle

Continents

Europe
Africa
Asia
Australia
North America
South America
Antarctica

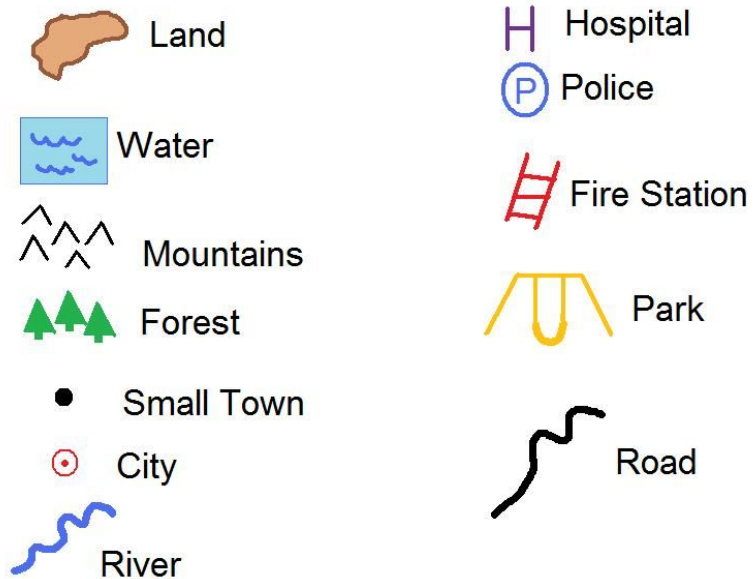

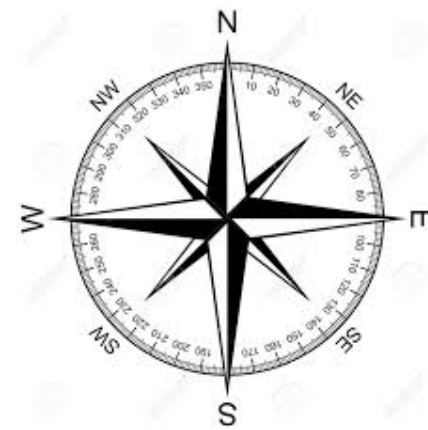

Oceans

Atlantic
Pacific
Indian
Southern Arctic

Pirates

England	Flower - Rose Capital- London Patron Saint- Saint George
Northern Ireland	Flower - Shamrock Capital- Belfast Patron Saint- Saint Patrick
Scotland	Flower - Thistle Capital- Edinburgh Patron Saint- Saint Andrew
Wales	Flower - Leek and daffodil Capital- Cardiff Patron Saint- Saint David

This is a compass. Sailors used these to help navigate when sailing at sea. They couldn't always use maps because sometimes they were sailing to places no one had been before!

This is an example of a key for a map. Each symbol represents a physical or human feature.